Within this mythical narrative, the passage unveils an astonishing invitation concealed amidst its verses. It offers us a glimpse into the grand heavenly banquet, where not only will joyous celebration abound but also a deeper spiritual understanding awaits.

The Bride and the Groom

The central figures in this celestial wedding are a radiant bride and a loving groom. Symbolically, the bride represents the faithful followers of the divine, while the groom is identified as the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ himself.

As we delve into the imagery presented in Revelation 12, we discover the intense yearning of the groom to unite with his bride. It becomes evident that this is not an ordinary wedding but a spiritual connection that transcends earthly constraints.

The Feast of Eternity

Imagine stepping into a lavish heavenly banquet where celestial delights tantalize your senses and divine wisdom flows abundantly. The wedding banquet described in Revelation 12 promises just that. It represents an extraordinary feast of eternity, a cosmic celebration of immense joy and enlightenment.

At this celestial gathering, guests are invited not only to partake in sumptuous delicacies but also to engage in profound conversations with heavenly hosts. They are welcomed into an intellectual and spiritual exchange, gaining insights that surpass any earthly knowledge.

An Invitation That Transcends Time

The invitation presented in the original Revelation 12 holds the key to unlocking this extraordinary experience. It transcends the boundaries of time, calling upon sincere seekers from all ages to partake in this celestial wedding feast.

The invitation resonates deeply with our human longing for transcendence and unity with the divine. It assures us that we, too, can attain this spiritual unity and eternal fulfillment, awakening our souls to an existence beyond the limitations of this earthly realm.

How Can We Respond to the Invitation?

Responding to this invitation is not a mere RSVP but a journey of spiritual transformation. It calls upon us to cultivate virtues such as faith, love, compassion, and selflessness. These qualities allow us to align our lives with the divine purpose and embrace the spiritual awakening that awaits us at the grand celestial banquet.

Furthermore, embracing practices such as meditation, contemplation, and self-reflection enables us to prepare our inner selves to receive the divine wisdom and experience the profound joy that this wedding banquet holds.

The invitation to the wedding banquet described in the original Revelation 12 offers us an opportunity of a lifetime. It beckons us to embark on a transformative, spiritual journey, promising a celestial feast that surpasses any earthly pleasures.

Let us not overlook this extraordinary invitation, for it holds the key to a higher understanding, a deeper connection with the divine, and eventual union with our spiritual groom. Let us respond eagerly, with open hearts and minds, ready to immerse ourselves in the grandeur of the heavenly celebration that awaits us.

The Feast Cycle laid out in the stars portray the Heavenly Wedding. The Spring Feasts rehearse the Engagement, and the Fall Feast are a rehearsal of the Wedding. We should approach our celebration of these Moedim from that standpoint. If we do, not only will we please Yahuah, but we will mature from the milk of the Word to the meat of it. In the process, we will fulfill “the letter” and properly prepare ourselves as the Bride; and have our candles lit when Yahusha returns to receive us unto himself. That message written in the stars was corrupted and very few understand what that message is telling us today. We have all been misled to reject The Heavenly Scroll and believe that all that exists is the corrupted Zodiac. However, that message is the foundation of The Torah, the Feasts, and the reason Abraham attempted to sacrifice Isaac. It is the foundation of all pagan King’s claim to rule mankind, and the foundation of every Prophet’s proclamations concerning the Messiah. This fundamental message written into the stars by The Creator as a witness to all mankind is further revealed in covenants made between The Creator and mankind. Every covenant in the Bible is liken unto a “marriage covenant” where two shall become one in mind, will, and purpose. The Law is the “marriage vows” to help us understand our responsibilities in the relationship. We find that Yahusha, who is the Bridegroom, constantly taught the same message Yahuah authored into the stars, giving us more and more insight into the Plan of Salvation... the plan of the Bridegroom redeeming his Bride. The Appointed Times (or the Feast of Yahuah) are a literal rehearsal of this Divine Wedding each year. This message and meaning behind the annual Feasts are hidden knowledge revealed only to those “invited to the Wedding”. Like Sha’ul said, it was not understood by the leaders of Israel in the Second Temple Period, or by those who lead us in this age even now. Yet, we follow these same leaders (Pharisees i.e. modern-day Rabbinical Judaism, Hebrew Roots Teachers) and their “way of doing things” and in doing so, we err in our responsibility to rehearse them properly as His Bride! We have missed the most basic understanding of the Feasts and we all have become ritualistic in our adherence to these Appointed Days. We just go through the motions. We are not really rehearsing the events of the Wedding as his Bride. His true Bride properly rehearses for the Wedding. Those still stuck on the milk of the Word and believe what pleases Yahuah is “do this, do that” on these days are not the Bride and do not receive a Wedding Invitation!
