Pria and Alexander laughed at Anna. The whole class laughed at Anna. “You’ll see,” said Anna. “She’s real. And real big too.”

When Anna’s family moves to a new neighborhood where she doesn’t have any friends, Anna sets off to explore the local pond and discovers there’s far more magic in nature than she could have ever imagined.

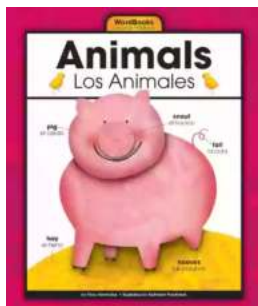

A bridge between picture books and chapter books, Anna and the Earth Angel offers sustainability inside and out. While Anna works to restore nature in her story, every print copy of the book sold plants a tree in Alberta.

Anna is a champion of nature with a big heart and an even bigger new friend. She inspires curiosity, exploration, tenacity and the power of community. She finds magic in everyday adventures, and sees the extraordinary in the ordinary. Ages 6-9 will love Anna and the Earth Angel.
