The Black Revolution began thousands of years ago, with the establishment of the great civilizations that today are called civilizations.

The Etruscans and Egyptians, the Sumerians and the first Romans, the first inhabitants of Europe as well as the aboriginal population of China, India, Australia, Russia and the American continent as a whole were black-skinned.

The Trojans, true warriors of bronze and iron, can hardly - except in television fiction - be identified with any race other than black, but the genetic evidence is there, in these lines we will not enter into debates because what concerns us is not really, but how to build a profitable future for our people and for the good of the world.

The Black Revolution is the path in a straight line to reap all the fruits of what we have learned so far, which is not little.

We are an extraordinary people, scattered all over the world but very ignorant of ourselves, we do not know our own history.

And above all, we have accepted a vision of the world that does not correspond to us, because disorder cannot order anyone.

We are an organized and fighting people, free and intelligent, we are not and have never been slaves of anyone; we have been held hostage for centuries and have been murdered and our humanity has not been respected, but that is another thing. They, - those responsible - may call it what they want, but history will call it by its name, a cold war against Africa.

We have not been given much of a chance to raise our heads because the disorder caused in our house, in our homeland, allows the enrichment of the whole world, and the chronic impoverishment of our people all over the world, and who cares?

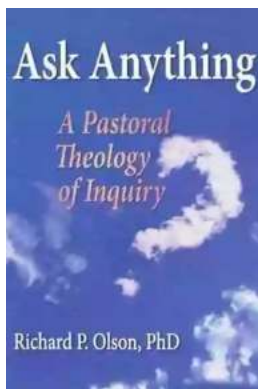

If you are reading these lines, I hope it is because you care.

Thank you for reading these lines.
