I was a proud Satanist for many years. I was devoted and loved my life. I made pacts with demons and was a true soldier for Lucifer. Over the next five years our lives changed drastically as I began to see the lie that Satan had spun for me as I struggled to free myself from his grasp. The spiritual warfare was relentless and I found myself in a battle to not only save my family but to save my soul from the very demons I once pledged my life to.
