The present pocket book aims specially at helping the foreign visitor to Kazakhstan who does not know Russian and Kazakh to explain what he wants, ask questions and make requests. The book consists of some short information about the Republic. Its first section is composed of words and expressions likely to be needed on first acquaintance. Subsequent sections deal with other specific subjects.

For the convenience of the reader it has minimum explanations about Russian and the Kazakh sound systems and their alphabets. The Russian letters in brackets and preceded by hyphen indicate the feminine ending.
