Why Animals?

Learning with animals can make the process more enjoyable and memorable. Animals have a way of capturing our attention and engaging us in ways that traditional learning methods cannot. By associating prepositions of place with animals, we create a visual representation in our minds that helps us recall and use them correctly.

The Lessons

Our journey begins with the basics, as we introduce you to a variety of animals and their unique habitats. Each animal will be accompanied by images and descriptions that will enable you to visualize their positions in relation to different objects or landmarks.

Lesson 1: The Curious Cat

Meet Whiskers, an adorable orange tabby cat! Whiskers loves to roam around and explore the world. Together, we will learn how to describe Whiskers' whereabouts using prepositions. Is he sitting on a fence? Or maybe hiding under a table?

Lesson 2: The Playful Monkey

Join us in the jungle and meet Coco, the mischievous monkey! Coco swings from tree branches, jumps on rocks, and hangs upside down. Through Coco's adventures, we will master prepositions like "above," "below," and "between."

Lesson 3: The Graceful Dolphin

Let's dive into the ocean and encounter Flipper, the graceful dolphin! Flipper gracefully leaps over waves, swims beside boats, and dives deep into the sea. With Flipper's help, we'll learn prepositions that relate to being in water, such as "in," "on," and "under."

Lesson 4: The Majestic Eagle

Soar through the sky with Ruby, the majestic eagle! Ruby glides effortlessly above mountaintops, perches on tree branches, and builds her nest atop tall cliffs. Join her aerial journey to acquire prepositions like "over," "among," and "against."

Lesson 5: The Cuddly Rabbit

Finally, we will hop into the enchanting world of bunnies with Cottontail, the cuddly rabbit! Cottontail loves to explore gardens, dig burrows, and hop over obstacles. Together, we will learn prepositions that describe Cottontail's movements and position, such as "through," "around," and "past."

The Interactive Activities

Learning becomes even more exciting with interactive activities that reinforce your understanding of prepositions of place. Our fun-filled quizzes, games, and exercises will challenge your knowledge and help solidify what you've learned. Get ready to put your newfound skills to the test!
