Book 1: Orgone Energy Healing Therapy

Energy therapy, also referred to as energy healing, spiritual healing or energy medicine is a branch of alternative medicine that proposes imbalances in the "energy field" within the human body results in illness. Therefore, any attempts to re-balance the energy-field can help restore the body's health.

Proponents of this therapy reveal healing or treatment is about getting rid of blockages or negative energies in the mind. Furthermore, a subsequent episode of poor health and illness is advanced as a release of 'contraction' in the body and mind. Some modalities recommend further treatment to completely heal the condition in severe or persistent cases. Hence, the therapist would recommend conventional medicine.

Orgone treatment is great for the snappy mending of wounds, muscle strain and snugness. It makes chiropractic, physiotherapy, osteopathy and craniosacral treatment (among numerous others) substantially more viable, since it helps modification hold and unwinds muscle strain.

Heal Your Mind And Body With Gemstone And Crystals Guide

Crystal healing is a form of vibrational medicine in which subtle energy given off by a crystal is used to treat the body, mind, spirit, and the emotions. Crystals exhibit a type of orderly perfection, which helps to bring healing light and loving encouragement to all beings. Since both crystals and the human body have an inherent energetic blueprint, it is thought that the energies of the body can be balanced and healed by introducing the energetic vibration of a crystal into the body's energy field. Their perfect forms are a metaphor for the balance and perfection that humans search for in their own lives.

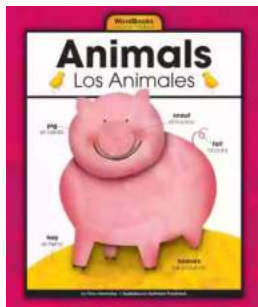

Crystals have the capability to absorb and transmit light (the utmost universal energy known to be in existence). Because of this property, crystals are able to draw in Universal energy, reflect it among their internal crystalline structures, and then transmit it to a receiving source (i.e. any being that will accept the crystal's generous healing energy).
