Within the deck, there are two primary categories of cards: the Major Arcana and the Minor Arcana. The Major Arcana consists of 22 cards, each representing a significant life event or spiritual lesson. These cards offer profound insights and act as guiding lights on our journey. On the other hand, the Minor Arcana consists of 56 cards divided into four suits: Wands, Cups, Swords, and Pentacles. These cards mirror our day-to-day experiences and emotions, offering practical advice and guidance.

The Art of Tarot Reading

Tarot reading is both an art and a science. Skilled Tarot readers are not only adept at interpreting the symbolic meanings of the cards but also possess intuitive abilities to connect with their clients' energy. A Tarot reading typically involves shuffling the cards, laying them out in a spread, and then analyzing their position and relationships with one another. The reader then interprets the messages conveyed by the cards, offering guidance, clarity, and predictions.

However, it's important to note that Tarot readings are not set in stone. The future is not predetermined, but rather influenced by a combination of factors including our choices, actions, and external circumstances. Tarot serves as a tool to empower and guide us, helping us to understand the options and potential outcomes available to us.
