DAG

How do you convince someone that has been betrayed since the day they were born that you are being true. I can feel the pain that betrays Esmeralda's courage, the pain that is like a shield holding her in limbo from living a full and joyful life. The scars on her body are nothing like the scars that bleed deep in her soul. How can I protect and care for her if she doesn't open herself to the fact that I would give my very life to keep her safe. I won't rest until she feels the joy that she deserves, the joy of being loved and loving others.

ESMERALDA

He might have found me, might even make me feel like I have never felt before, but sooner or later the pain and betrayal will once again rear its head. He swears to protect me, to care for me, but who will protect him from me? Who will protect him from the evil that always follows me?
