The six adorable kids of the Curly Crew shine bright in this fun and affirming story.

I love my curly hair...

I love my brown skin...

I love my feet...Uncle loves it when they are right in his face!

This is a self-empowerment journey that both kids and their parents will love. The boys and girls of the Curly Crew admire different parts of their bodies and fully embrace the qualities that make them unique. It's a book that is both confidence-boosting, and silly enough to keep any child engaged. Parents and children can look forward to a story time full of smiles and laughter.
