'An uplifting and original romance story...well-paced, funny, heartwarming and the recipes at the back were a lovely surprise bonus!' Amazon 5-star review 'Recipes plus a poodle and I'm in... très charming!' Dear Author review

Come Date Me in Paris is the most popular blind date show in France. When Alice's boss wants her to go on the show and write about it for their magazine, so Alice agrees. After all, it's not likely she'll pass the screen test. But then a letter arrives telling Alice she's won a place, and she's thrown into a panic. The show involves cooking for your date...and in the country of haute cuisine, Alice can't even boil an egg.

Forced to throw herself on the mercy of her chef neighbour, Edmond, Alice asks him for lessons.

But will she be cooking up a romance...or cooking up disaster?

Come Date Me in Paris includes some delicious French recipes, a delicious French hero (c'est vrai!) and a poodle who steals the entire show.

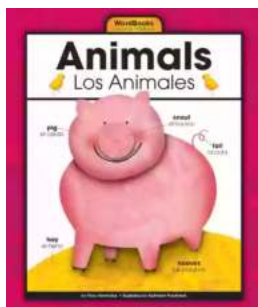

Praise for Helena Fairfax: 'Ms Fairfax's writing is lovely, romantic, evocative and sweet with a hint at an old fashioned love story...' Anita Davidson, Author 'If possible, I would give this novella 10 stars. This light-hearted, feel-good story was just what I needed.' Amazon 5-star review

'A wonderful sweet romance...I loved every moment of the story, and Alice and Edmond's chemistry was written to perfection!' Amazon 5-star review
