Make Me a Story! is a great new way to help your child write their own stories without feeling like they have to do it all on their own.

Each section in the book follows a simple yet effective formula: a fun and inspiring picture with lots of ideas and tiny plans building to bigger plans and then the whole story! (See How to use this book for more details).

The pictures have been carefully chosen to be very different from one another and with lots of details to help the story grow. There are robots, animals, real people, scary things, unicorns, naughty children, strange new worlds and lots more.

This book is particularly suitable for children aged 6-10 but has been used happily by older children who struggle with creative writing.
