French honed his skills under the guidance of renowned weavers, learning the intricacies of this ancient craft. With each passing day, he developed a unique artistic voice that sets his work apart from his peers.

The Magic of Threads

Woven Inn Peter French creates mesmerizing art pieces by using threads as his medium. His creations transport viewers to a world of ethereal beauty, capturing emotions and stories within each woven masterpiece.

The intricate details and patterns in Peter French's artwork are a testament to his patience, dedication, and meticulous craftsmanship. Every thread is carefully selected and expertly woven to create visual narratives that leave audiences captivated.

Exploring Themes Through Weaving

French's artwork delves into a wide range of themes, each piece telling a unique story. From nature-inspired landscapes to abstract interpretations of human emotions, his art evokes a sense of wonder and intrigue.

Whether it's a tapestry depicting a serene forest or a vibrant abstract composition, each artwork invites the viewer to interpret and connect with the underlying emotions woven into the fabric.

Embracing Innovation

While Peter French stays true to the traditional craft of weaving, he also embraces innovation. Constantly experimenting with new techniques, materials, and styles, he pushes the boundaries of what can be achieved with threads.

From incorporating unconventional materials into his tapestries to exploring modern interpretations of ancient motifs, French's work is a testament to his ability to merge tradition with contemporary art.

Award-Winning Artistry

Peter French's talent and mastery have been recognized and celebrated across the art world. He has received numerous accolades for his remarkable textile creations, leaving a lasting impact on the weaving community.

His artwork has been showcased in prestigious galleries and exhibitions, captivating art enthusiasts and critics alike.

What would it be like if Mary and Joseph were to journey among us today? Would we overlook them completely or would we journey with them? Join a distraught teenage couple, a discouraged priest and a discarded doctor as their stories become woven together in a bar on Christmas Eve.

Bill McKell writes, prints and mails a short story as his family's "Christmas Card" each year. "Woven Inn" was the Christmas story for 2009.

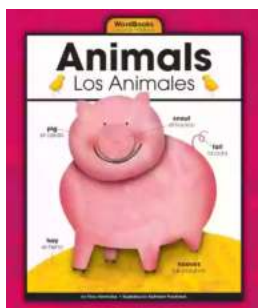

Woven Inn is dedicated to the faith community that attends "The Loft" in Chillicothe, Ohio for their willingness to meet God's people wherever they are and to Tom Burke and the patrons and staff of The Cross Keys Tavern for sharing Christmas with us.
