

Mindy Kim And The Fairy Tale Wedding: A Magical Journey to Happily Ever After!

When we got home, Theodore the Mutt came running to the door to greet my relatives. Everyone petted him and said he was very cute. I was so happy that my family finally got a chance to meet Theodore!

"Danbi would love him!" Sora said. "I bet they'd be instant friends."

At that moment, she frowned a little, like she missed her dog. I could relate, since that's how I'd felt when we left Theodore to go to Korea.

"I think they'd be friends too," I replied, trying to cheer her up. "Hopefully, they can meet someday!"

Soon afterward, Julie arrived at our house with her family. Her parents and sisters had flown in from China and New York the night before.

It was my first time meeting Julie's family. Her mom's smile was the same as Julie's, while her dad's kind eyes looked like hers. One of Julie's sisters had the same smile, while the other had the same eyes!

We all went around to say hi to one another. When it was time for me to greet Julie's parents,

Julie's mom said, "And you must be Mindy! You're even more adorable in person than you look in the pictures Julie sent us! Here, Julie said you liked animals, so we got you this! Cats are good luck in Chinese culture."

She gave me a key chain with a small stuffed-animal cat. It was so cute!
