How to Get Started with Playing Card Divination

If you're ready to explore the realm of playing card divination, here are some steps to help you get started:

1. Choose a Deck

The first step is to acquire a deck of traditional playing cards. Although there are decks specifically designed for divination, beginners can start with a regular deck found in most households. Ensure the deck is complete and in good condition before proceeding.

2. Set the Intention

Before diving into a reading, it's essential to set your intention. Decide what aspect of life you want guidance on and focus your energy on that question or area.

Shuffling the deck thoroughly is necessary to eliminate any previous energy and create a neutral starting point. Take your time and concentrate on your question or area of focus while shuffling.

4. Choose a Layout

There are various layouts or spreads you can use for card readings. For beginners, the three-card spread is a great starting point. In this layout, you draw three cards representing the past, present, and future.

5. Interpret the Cards

Each card has a unique meaning, and its position within the layout adds another layer of interpretation. Start by studying the individual meanings of each card and then analyze how they relate to your question or area of focus. Trust your intuition and let the cards guide you.
