PRINCE PATCHES is about a small Maltese Shih Tzu designer dog full of energy and responsibility. This book entails valuable information and/or insight for children who would like to own a pet. Prince Patches is unique because he has a distinct dark patch around his right eye. And this is why his name is Patches, which is noted throughout the book. But he is also a Prince because he is a great loving dog and shows courage.

There are a lot of duties required when owning a pet. Children are constantly asking parents for a pet, not realizing it comes with a price. More importantly, many children don't know what all comes with being a pet owner. For example, you must feed it, nurse it when its sick, take time out to play, and many other things. A dog or any pet becomes a part of your life for a long time and therefore, it becomes part of your family. It is very important to take care of a pet with love and compassion. Like a child, parents must nurture and take care of their children too. PRINCE PATCHES has a glossary in the back of the book to help young readers to comprehend what is read and build their vocabulary.
