The trouble with love is timing is everything...

Amelia

I was never supposed to fall in love with an older man. Let alone a man who is practically family.

We were too much, too soon. Our families were caught in the crossfire of our forbidden affair.

So, we said our goodbyes.

Four years have passed, and my ex is back from London.

He's just as devastatingly handsome as I remember. He's a billionaire now, courtesy of the contract he signed, which forced him to leave me behind.

But now—I'm engaged.

A complicated love triangle was never something I envisioned when Austin proposed to me. Then again, neither was Will Romano's return.

The man I fell in love with, and possibly—never stopped loving.

Will

The moment I saw the photo of her wearing an engagement ring, it was impossible to sit back and do nothing.

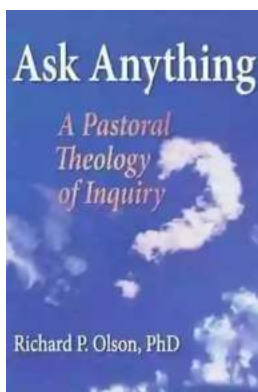

It should have been us.

I'm ready to fight for her, against her father and anyone who stands in our way. Something I should have done four years ago.

Now, my only mission is to win her back. Make her see that age is nothing but a number, and no one else matters besides us.

That is until one night my life changed forever.

All because I was desperate to forget she ever existed.
