With the body count rising and clues few and far between, can Alex Warren and his team close the case before more lives are lost?

Made A Killing is a gripping tartan noir mystery set in the tough, crime-ridden streets of Glasgow.

Praise:

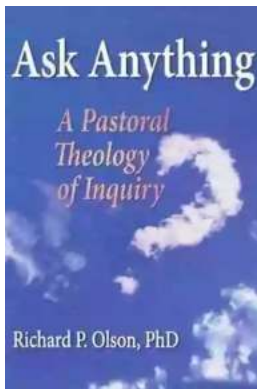

□□□□□ - "Tight cast of interesting characters."

□□□□ - "Mr. Abrams does a great job of bringing the gritty streets of Glasgow to life."

□□□□ - "This book is an intriguing escape. It was dark but not too dark. As a reader, I enjoyed every twist and turn. The setting is made authentic not only by the author's Glasgow upbringing but his ability to visualize the grey, gloomy Scottish November that is a perfect setting for this whodunit."

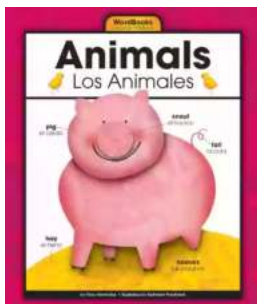

□□□□ - "The characters were great. The reason for the murder was believable. I can see it happening in real life."

□□□□ - "I found it so hard to stop reading that I missed my regular Tuesday TV show."
