Journey to the Sparkling Sapphire Caves

In the first book of the series, "Baby Bella's Brilliant Adventure," our young heroine finds a magical key that opens a hidden door in her grandmother's attic. Stepping through the portal, she is transported to the Sparkling Sapphire Caves, a breathtaking underground wonderland filled with shimmering crystals, fluttering fairies, and mischievous gnomes. Baby Bella must solve riddles and overcome obstacles to find her way back home.

Amanda Roberts intricately weaves together elements of fantasy, suspense, and humor to keep young readers engaged from the first page to the last. With each turn of the page, children will eagerly anticipate what obstacle or clue Baby Bella will encounter next.

Discovering the Land of Talking Animals

The second installment, "Baby Bella and the Enchanted Forest," sees our little adventurer stumble upon a hidden path in her backyard that leads to a magical forest. Here, she befriends a delightful cast of talking animals, including a wise old owl, a mischievous fox, and a kind-hearted squirrel. Together, they strive to protect the forest from a wicked sorceress who seeks to exploit its powers for personal gain.

The captivating illustrations by Katherine Wilson effortlessly bring the characters and settings to life, immersing young readers in the mystical world of Baby Bella. The vibrant colors and intricate details truly capture the imagination and make the stories even more enjoyable.

Teaching Valuable Lessons along the Way

One of the many strengths of The Adventures of Baby Bella Ista Sapa series is its ability to entertain while imparting important life lessons. Each story focuses on values such as friendship, bravery, perseverance, and kindness. Through her various encounters, Baby Bella learns about empathy, problem-solving, and the importance of making the right choices.

The Adventures of Baby Bella Ista Sapa is a childrens series offered in English and French. The world is unveiled through the eyes of a lovable Female Saint Bernard.

- The educational sequence begins on an American Indian reservation located in Flandreau, South Dakota in the United States of American. Geography and History are taught. Bella's name means "Beautiful Black Eye" in Italian and Sioux language. Ista (ee-shdah) Sapa (sah-pah) is the pronunciation in Lakota lingo.
- Acadia National Park is highlighted. Bella's first adventure illustrates Baby Bella's journey across the United States to Bella's first home, in Acadia National Park, in Maine located on the secluded prestigious "Mitchel Cove". This is where Famous Americans once exchanged Secret Codes, while writing about the Cuban Missel Crises over French cuisine. Lopaus Point is full of American history!

Madame Byrne, the author, is an Global Environmentalist and citizen of the planet who enjoys being a vegetarian along with Bella. Ms Bryne offers a warm book that highlights the sites and sounds of one of the most visited parks in the United States which was inhabited by American Indians and was French soil. Ms Byrne holds BS degrees in Environmental Science and Business.

- MDI (Mount Desert Island) or as French Explorer Samuel de Champlain named it "Isle des Monts Desert " has thrived with many different inhabitants. It is one the largest islands off the coast of the Great State of Maine.
- The pages of artistic sketches are derived from authentic photographs and are the real events and places where the delightful Saint Bernard has grown from 8 weeks through her current age. Bella will enjoy her third birthday on October 28, 2022. Fun details regarding Bella's private life are offered upon request.
- This is a non fiction book that teaches grade school children about geography, environmental science and is offered in French and English for teaching both languages. The book details how physical exercise is essential for humans through the lovely activities of a Saint Bernard!

International travel is highlighted in the next book when Bella takes a plane and crosses the Atlantic twice to reach her family home at the base of Mont Blanc. This delightful first is a long series which will be a joy to read with or to your children as they mature into responsible creative global citizens.

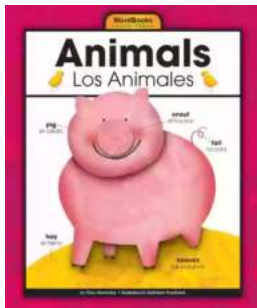

Young children can "play eye spy" with Bella's ears flying and tongue licking repeats! Everyone will be able to connect objects from one book to the next i.e. the "Orange Lobster Nets" which leads to discusses regarding pollution left by leading industries around the world and how communities combat these unintentional gifts! The series offers a chance to teach many many life lessons! Older grade school children can proceed with both books in French and English and they create a great gift package.

- The world is an adventure and there is something to learn with every new paw print!
