One evening, while attending Julie's concert, James caught a glimpse of a mysterious stranger lurking in the shadows. The stranger's unsettling gaze sent shivers down his spine. Ignoring his instincts, James approached the figure, hoping to unravel the secret surrounding Julie.

As he ventured deeper into the enigma, James discovered a hidden network of fanatics who adored Julie just as much as him. They were called "The Flock," a group that shared an inexplicable bond with the artist. However, James soon realized that The Flock's love for Julie had turned into an eerie obsession.

Unbeknownst to James, The Flock had discovered Julie's secret hideaway, a secluded mansion deep within the woods. They believed this was their chance to be with her forever, even if it meant resorting to terrifying measures.

Driven by his love for Julie and the need to protect her from The Flock, James decided to take matters into his own hands. He embarked on a perilous journey to rescue her from the clutches of her crazed fans.

As James delved further into the mystery, he uncovered dark secrets and shocking revelations that would change his life forever. The Flock's obsession with Julie had led them down a path of madness and destruction that threatened to consume everything they cherished.

Armed with determination and a relentless spirit, James maneuvered through dangerous obstacles, braving stormy nights and haunted forests. His journey to save Julie had become a fight for his own sanity and survival.

Will James be able to save Julie from the clutches of The Flock, or will he succumb to their insanity? Can love truly conquer all obstacles thrown their way?

Thirteen year-old David has quit soccer—he much prefers solving Sudoku puzzles. But when his parents divorce, David must endure the indignity of reporting to Miss Lee, the elderly Chinese-American neighbor Mom enlists to keep tabs on him.

David resents the intrusion, but when he and Miss Lee discover a common interest in word games, a true friendship develops. In fact, Miss Lee understands David better than Dad, who pressures David to participate in sports and insists he complete a project required for application to a prestigious private school. When Dad learns of his friendship with Miss Lee, his prejudiced nature shows itself. But does David care enough about what Dad wants for him to abandon a good friend?

As Miss Lee begins to help David with his application project, she wonders what consequences this will have for David. How will Miss Lee straddle the fine line between mentor, and meddler?
