Karachi, a mega city of about 25 million now, has been burning since two decades in spreading blaze of target killings, extortion, organised robberies, kidnapping for ransom, sectarian blasts and massive corruption by ruling political regimes. Later, the city became Taliban's refuge and a battleground for neighbouring Muslim countries.

Since 25 years, nothing has been written about Karachi's affairs because of dreadful apprehensions, horror and fears of being eliminated.

First time, the two volumes [c 815 pages] of that city's complete diary has been compiled to keep the history intact.
