The Legend of The Moon is Silver Pond

Every magical place has a captivating origin story. The Moon is Silver Pond is no exception.

According to an age-old legend passed down from generation to generation, it is said that a thousand years ago, a celestial being descended from the moon and fell in love with a beautiful maiden residing near Silver Pond. Their forbidden love blossomed under the shimmering moonlight, unable to resist the magnetic pull between them.

However, their love came at a price as the celestial being was bound to return to the moon at sunrise. Determined to make their love eternal, the maiden begged the moon to allow her to travel to the celestial realm. Moved by her devotion, the moon granted her wish, turning Silver Pond into a gateway between the mortal and celestial realms.

Since then, Silver Pond has become a place where the moon's magic intertwines with the mortal world, allowing glimpses of its celestial beauty and offering refuge to adventurers seeking a taste of the extraordinary.

A young child skates, bakes and milks the cow while the moon wondrously transforms above.

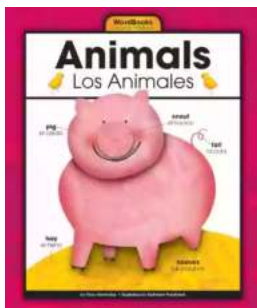

The moon is a silver pond when seen through the trees. When they tend the cow, the moon is the milk at the bottom of the pail.

With stunning illustrations by Josée Bisailon, this simple board book shows children that the way they see the world—by heart, mind and imagination—is just right. Reveling in metaphor, The Moon Is a Silver Pond encourages that magical leap of imagination and asks the reader to look at everyday objects from a different perspective.
