Discover the Power of Learn and See Books

As you embark on your Mandarin immersion travel adventure, having the right resources at hand will greatly enhance your experience. Learn and see books are an essential tool for language learners exploring a foreign country.

Learn and see books provide a visual and interactive approach to language learning. These books are designed with immersive illustrations and photographs, helping readers associate new words and phrases with real-life images. By combining visuals with written explanations, you can grasp the meaning and context of vocabulary more easily.

Furthermore, these books are often accompanied by audio resources, allowing you to practice pronunciation and improve your listening skills. By hearing native speakers pronounce the words and phrases you encounter in the book, you will gain valuable insights into spoken Mandarin.

Written in English and Mandarin (Simplified Chinese & Pin Yin), Travel, Learn and See your friends 走学看朋友 is a story about two first-graders attending a Mandarin Immersion school. Dean and Ethan become fast friends. Dean is ethnically Chinese, and his reasons for learning Mandarin are more cultural. Ethan is an African-American and through his language journey, he learns about himself, his family, and the world. TLSee your Friends is an illustrated story book written in English, Simplified Chinese, and Pin Yin. This bilingual book is targeted at Mandarin Immersion students, but can be read by non-native speakers of Chinese. About the Author: Edna is a physician anesthesiologist and mom, who was motivated to write a bilingual Chinese children's book, inspired by her son's friendship after he enrolled in a Mandarin immersion school. Although she is not a native speaker of Mandarin, she wanted to read to her children in Mandarin. She found a limited selection of books for this age group. So she created these stories to include English and Mandarin with pin yin, to facilitate different reading levels. Her stories celebrate friendship and cultural diversity. When she's not in the operating room, she enjoys traveling with her family. You may have seen her on either SURVIVOR or Shark Tank.
