The three staples in Mexican dishes are corn, beans, and chilies (hot peppers), all present before the Spanish arrived. Corn is consumed in all possible forms, but most importantly as a tortilla (a thin, round pancake made from corn dough). Tortillas are also used to make tacos and quesadillas, popular throughout the country. Avocado, tomatoes, and rice also feature heavily in Mexican dishes. Here is a Preview of the delicious Mexican Appetizers you will learn:

- Cheesy Chipotle Mashed Potatoes
