Perhaps the meaning of life lies in pursuing personal passions, seeking genuine connections, or contributing to the betterment of society.

3. Does free will truly exist?

Are our actions determined by external factors, or do we possess the ability to make independent choices? Exploring this question can lead us to ponder the nature of destiny, morality, and personal responsibility.

4. What is the nature of good and evil?

The eternal struggle between good and evil has fascinated humanity since the dawn of time. Are good and evil objective, or are they subjective constructs influenced by societal norms and personal beliefs? Engaging in deep conversations and respectful debates can help us broaden our perspectives and challenge our preconceived notions. It is okay to admit uncertainty or engage in ongoing exploration. Honest answers come not necessarily as final s, but as ever-evolving understandings.

In Tough Questions, Honest Answers, Christian theologian Cameron Harder explores pressing contemporary challenges to religion--from religion itself to modern "big ideas" that often confound thoughtful seekers.

Asking, "Is it good to believe in God?" he examines some of the social costs and benefits of religious commitment. Issues addressed include religion and violence, religion and child sexual abuse, mystery and miracle, the compatibility of science and faith, and God's role when bad things happen. Harder also reflects on whether there is room for faith and religion in the twenty-first century and shares his own reasons for claiming the Christian faith.

Tough Questions, Honest Answers is an excellent conversation starter for inquirers, skeptics, and faithful doubters. Young parents who are wondering how to nurture their child's spirituality and older readers who want to re-think their faith in light of what they've learned about the world over the decades will appreciate Cameron Harder's forthright, accessible discussion.

Harder strives in this book to be personally honest with the questions he raises, to push past common platitudes and propaganda others offer in response to them. He acknowledges, "I'm an explorer too--looking for a clearer view of what religion could be, and should not be, for my children and grandchildren."
