The Origins: Unfolding an Immortal Romance

The air is filled with the fragrant aroma of incense and flowers, heightening the senses as devotees offer prayers and seek blessings.

Art plays a pivotal role in the Dola Mitra festivity. Artists, known as "patachitrakars," create intricate paintings known as "patachitra" that depict scenes from sacred texts and Krishna's legend. These vibrant artworks are lovingly displayed during the festival, adding an artistic flair to the grand celebration.
