During our conversation with Biro, we ventured into the labyrinthine corridors of his twisted imagination, seeking to understand the genesis of his artistic vision. Biro revealed that his fascination with extreme horror stemmed from his own personal demons and a desire to confront them head-on. He explained how the world of horror provided a cathartic outlet for his own inner torment, allowing him to exorcise his own demons through his films.

Alt attribute: Stephen Biro's unconventional approach to filmmaking.

Biro's unorthodox storytelling techniques have stirred debate and divided opinions within the film community. His unflinching depiction of violence and gore has sparked controversy and led to accusations of glorifying gratuitous brutality. However, for Biro, this is precisely the point. He believes that horror should shock and disturb, forcing audiences to confront their own morality and challenging societal norms. Biro maintains that by pushing the boundaries of what is deemed acceptable, he can provoke meaningful discussions about the nature of evil and the depths of human depravity.

Alt attribute: Stephen Biro's films are known for their controversial and thought-provoking content.

One of Biro's most notable creations, "American Guinea Pig: Song of Solomon," pushed the boundaries of what was considered acceptable even within the horror genre. Exploring themes of religious fanaticism, possession, and exorcism, the film delves into the darkest corners of the human mind and lingers long after the credits roll. Biro's meticulous attention to detail and his unwavering commitment to authenticity create an immersive experience that is both unsettling and captivating.

The greatest trick that the Devil has ever pulled off was to convince the world He does not exist. Now, you will know He exists.

For one man on a life-long pursuit for the truth, a chilling relationship with the Fallen Angel brings him a soul shattering insight into the world we live in. Will his DIALOGUE WITH THE DEVIL bring enlightenment or only madness and suffering?

DIALOGUE WITH THE DEVIL contains transcriptions by a writer who got pulled into the battle for his very soul, giving him a glimpse into the larger battle that rages between Heaven and Hell. It's a War in which most of mankind lives in total ignorance.

That writer, Stephen Biro (author of HELLUCINATION - A MEMOIR), is again doing what he does best: Peering behind the veil and fighting the Devil on his own ground. Here, Biro searches for reasons to the madness of humanity by asking direct questions of Satan.

DIALOGUE WITH THE DEVIL became possible when Satan found no more fight in the human spirit. He grew weary of the falling of mankind and decided to offer up the Truth -- His Truth, His manipulations, His deviousness. Satan has been altering mindsets from the very beginning, and this book reveals, straight from Satan's mouth, the plan for mankind's slow, downward spiral into Hell.

In this book, the Devil has evened the playing field by offering His history, His deceitful machinations. Will you read this book, no matter how unnerving, and use its startling information to prevent your fall from God's good graces?

Your book was really powerful and the Dialogue you had with the Devil is just amazing. This is going to be a book that is going to take the world by storm, seriously. I don't tell that to anyone and have been writing for over twenty years and let me tell you, there is nothing out there like this. Mitch Hyman, Author of "Hitmen in Paradise"

It's funny (I choked several times on my beer reading it.) It's mind blowing and Satan was just so chaotic and manipulative, I loved reading it. It's unlike anything I have ever read, yet again. Jack Donnelly, Author of "Masters of Taboo"

I wasn't expecting this... I loved Hellucination but I love this more! It's a totally different style and very powerful. This is a brave book - it's like nothing I've read before. I really enjoyed it and it leaves the reader questioning...well, almost everything! Nigel Lata-Burston, Author of "Plastic Bacon, Toast and the upcoming Mr. VHS"

Powerful! There was more times, I had to stop reading because this was actually scaring the shi* out of me. It was like reading the Exorcist back in 1972 when everyone was freaking out over it... but that was 1972! It's 2013, we're jaded, used to horror daily but this scared me completely. Jim VanBebber, Director of "The Manson Family and Deadbeat at Dawn"
