

Unveiling the Most Secret Weapons of Nations: Remote Viewed by Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed

Imagine having the power to see far beyond the limits of your physical body, to observe classified military facilities, and uncover the most covert weapons in the world. This captivating ability, known as remote viewing, allows individuals to tap into their psychic potential and perceive information from distant locations or targets. One extraordinary remote viewer, Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed, has taken this skill to a whole new level, revealing the most secretive weapons possessed by nations across the globe.

The Mysterious World of Remote Viewing

Remote viewing is a technique developed by the U.S. military during the Cold War era to explore the potential of psychic espionage. It encompasses a range of practices that enable individuals to gather information about distant or unseen targets using their mind's eye. Though remote viewing might sound like science fiction, it has gained significant credibility due to successful operations conducted by military and intelligence agencies.

Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed, a well-known remote viewer and researcher, has dedicated his life to uncovering hidden truths using this extraordinary skill. Through a combination of innate psychic abilities and intensive training, Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed has become a renowned figure in the world of remote viewing.

Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed's Astonishing Revelations

Over the years, Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed has delved deep into the secretive world of weapons development within various nations. He claims to have remote viewed classified military bases and installations, uncovering the most advanced and secret weapons being developed by countries worldwide. Here are some of his astonishing revelations:

The United States of America: Project "Quantum Thunder"

Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed describes a highly classified project called "Quantum Thunder" being developed by the United States. Remote viewing this project, he claims to have witnessed the creation of a revolutionary weapon that can manipulate and control the fundamental particles of matter. This weapon has the potential to disrupt electronic systems, render enemy defenses useless, and potentially alter the course of a battle.

Russia: "Czar's Eye" Electro-Magnetic Pulse Cannon

According to Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed, Russia's most secret weapon is an electromagnetic pulse (EMP) cannon known as "Czar's Eye." This mammoth weapon can emit a pulse of electromagnetic radiation capable of disabling an entire city's power grid, rendering all electronic devices useless. It is said that "Czar's Eye" has been successfully tested in remote Russian territories, far from prying eyes.

China: "Sky Dragon" Hypersonic Missile

Remote viewing the Chinese weapon development program, Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed describes the "Sky Dragon" hypersonic missile. This weapon is part of China's efforts to become a major player in global military dominance. With an astounding speed exceeding Mach 5, the "Sky Dragon" missile can bypass traditional missile defenses and strike targets with unparalleled precision.

Israel: "Nebula Shield" Quantum Stealth Technology

According to Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed's remote viewing sessions, Israel has made significant advancements in stealth technology. The "Nebula Shield" employs quantum physics principles to manipulate light, rendering objects invisible to the naked eye and conventional surveillance systems. This groundbreaking development in stealth technology could provide Israel with a tremendous advantage in combat situations.

North Korea: "Dark Scar" Submarine

Remote viewing into North Korea's weapons program, Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed claims to have witnessed a highly secretive submarine known as "Dark Scar." This advanced submarine is equipped with an array of stealth technologies, rendering it almost undetectable by conventional means. The "Dark Scar" submarine is rumored to be capable of launching ballistic missiles, posing a significant threat in the region.

The Ethical Dilemma of Remote Viewing

While Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed's revelations are fascinating, they also raise questions about the ethical implications of remote viewing. The ability to access classified military information can potentially compromise national security. Additionally, the credibility of these claims is often met with skepticism from traditional intelligence agencies. Many argue that remote viewing should remain solely within the realms of research and exploration, rather than being utilized as an intelligence-gathering tool.

Remote viewing is a captivating field, offering glimpses into hidden realms and secret military projects. Kiwi Joe Remote Viewed's ability to remote view has provided astonishing insights into the most secret weapons possessed by nations worldwide. From the United States' project "Quantum Thunder" to Russia's "Czar's Eye" EMP cannon, and China's "Sky Dragon" hypersonic missile, these revelations unveil the lengths nations go to gain a competitive edge in the global military arena. However, the ethical implications of remote viewing remain a topic of debate, leaving open questions about the future use of this extraordinary psychic ability.

- The Virus
- Directed Weather Bombs
- Spinning Orbs Delivering Electromagnetic Havoc over Vast Distances

These are just three of today's fascinating and frightening weapon systems discovered over six years of investigation from 2012 to 2018 by Kiwi Joe, a trained remote viewer. Book Four in Kiwi Joe's Remote Viewed series is a shocking and compelling read.

Ten countries. Ten weapons. Nine remain secret. At least two of these hide in plain sight.

We are living on a battlefield encompassing the entire globe. Hot wars are no longer limited to conflicts between nations, and the secret weapons of nations are no longer limited to military targets. You will find the book generously illustrated throughout with the original sketches from the remote viewing sessions.

Remote Viewing uses an ESP ability found in all of us to view a distant or unseen object utilizing a disciplined approach originally developed under the auspices of the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) and the Stanford Research Institute (SRI) in the 1970s.
